

Welcome to our services
Sunday 20th November 2016

CHRIST THE KING

A WAY INTO PRAYER: This Sunday we gaze upon the King on His Cross. What looks like a scene of torture and humiliation becomes a coronation scene like no other.

We praise God today for the way he turn everything around – for the defeat of sin and death on the cross and for the invitation that brings follows for us to be his image bearers – a kingdom of priests to serve reign with Him!

“To him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be praise and honor and glory and power, for ever and ever!” (Revelation 5)

KNIT FOR PEACE... Thank you to the ladies who have been knitting 'comfort teddies' for the Syrian refugee children. The first batch have been sent off now with some hats and baby clothes, but please keep knitting. If anyone is interested in knitting these bears or anything else for the children, please speak to Jody (St Paul's)

ST ANDREW'S 'FAIR' Thank you to everyone who helped, supported, attended and enjoyed yesterday's event at the hall. This thank you is written in advance so can offer no news!

CRISTMAS FAIR AGAIN!... in the other bit of Blackley (!) happens on the 26th November – there will be the usual café, stall and activities throughout the morning. Come along and support St Peter's & St Paul's event if you can.

STEWARDSHIP... We are still working through the responses on treasure time and talents and will get a report out to you as soon as possible. We have quite a few not returned and some came in very late and so it not easy as we'd have hoped!

CO-OP ACADEMY... We have had some invites from our friends at what was Plant Hill.

First, for our senior citizens – why people think churches have lots of them I don't know! 3-course lunch, sherry, live entertainment and it is all free! 3.30 to 6.30 on Wednesday 14th. It would be nice to make links with them so please do take up the invite and we will make sure one of the ministry team come with you to do the introductions etc.

There is a Christmas concert there on Monday 12th with a big band, choir and a preview of Grease. £3

Tell us if you would like a ticket and we will organise for you!

BABS OF BETHLEHEM... we have a young lady at St Mary's called Emma who is part of a Christian theatre group and her company is putting on a Christmas show at The Miners in Moston on Friday 9th Dec – tickets £5 & £3. Again we'd love you to support this and we will help with tickets and transport.
